Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

nutritious meals to the sick and vulnerable, caring for and educating our community.

Meals are medically tailored to address the needs of older adults, people living with chronic disease and vulnerable communities experiencing food and nutrition insecurity. Our medically tailored meal intervention includes meals that are catered to address specific dietary needs paired with education provided one on one or in a classroom setting by registered dietitians.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b, Program Service Accomplishments:

Home (CCNH) Model is designed to optimize client engagement in a MTN intervention and to set clients up for long-term success in managing nutrition-related health conditions. The CCNH framework recognizes that for vulnerable communities, nutrition security cannot exist in a vacuum. To foster effective long-term management of nutrition-related health conditions, the CCNH model brings an interdisciplinary approach to POH services. Taking this client-centered approach, our team is available to provide added support to clients needing assistance and linkage to other beneficial resources that address various social determinants of health that may impact their ability to stay engaged in care.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c, Program Service Accomplishments:

and Innovation Medi-Cal (CalAIM) program has included the provision of Medically Tailored Meals and Groceries (MTM/G) for women experiencing a high-risk pregnancy. Project Open Hand is prioritizing this population as it is well supported by science that there are significant health improvement opportunities for two people with each meal.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 4:

The organization amended its bylaws to update the authorized range of directors, clarify the conditions that create an automatic vacancy on the board, and define a quorum as a majority of the directors currently in office.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

Professional tax preparers forward the Form 990 to the Controller and CEO. After reviewing the return, the controller forwards it to the audit committee and the board of directors for their review prior to filing. Also, board members are encouraged to review the Form 990 and to forward their questions to the CEO and Controller. The Controller or professional tax preparers address the questions from the audit committee and the board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

POH's conflict of interest policy is written in the bylaws and the employee handbook. The board and the human resources department regularly monitor and enforce the conflict of interest policy when potential conflicts of interest situations arise.

The policies handle conflicts of interest both directly and indirectly in the board governance documents and in the employee handbook. Handbook policies cover all staff, but especially those in leadership and those handling any financial transactions.

Under the Whistleblower policy, concerns can be brought forward by any person to the human resources director or manager, Controller, or CEO and chair, co-chair, or secretary of the board. Externally, to the auditors or any of the regulating authorities.

Conflicts are reviewed in connection with Human Resources, Finance, and the Executive Director, in general the conflicts would be resolved at this level. If not, the board or external partners will be brought in, if necessary.

The organization does not allow for family members to supervise one another. In other cases, persons with conflicts of interest would be removed from the decision making process/ function found in conflict or if that is not possible, objective parties would be added to the decision making process.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

Compensation for the executive director is determined by the board based on the compensation committee recommendations. Compensation for the Chief Financial Officer is determined by the executive director and approved by the board. Compensation for other directors and key employees is determined and approved by the executive director.
